Footnotes

READY DANCER settled into midpack after an apparent clean getaway, got sent into the three path travelling around the turn, was put to a drive past the five-sixteenths marker, stepped foot into the stretch and went after the front runners, loomed boldly by the three-sixteenths marker, overhauled them during the next sixteenth, then kicked clear, kept to urging to the end. CONVICTION took the inside route down the backstretch, tipped off it coming to the top of the turn, was in the two path and under a drive by the three-eighths pole, swung outward entering the stretch, drifted all the way towards the eighth path during the first half of the stretch run, got corrected with some right side pressure and proceeded to wander several paths back towards the rail, continued onward and was along for the place. CADEYRN took control shortly after the start and cut over to the rail, got pounced upon by the REALM coming to the midway point and would remain locked up in a duel with that opponent from that moment on, was called upon for a response a sixteenth down the road, appeared vulnerable rubbing shoulders with the nemesis in upper stretch, was overhauled by the winner soon afterwards, got run down by the second place finisher with seventy yards to go, salvaged the show, but barely. REALM reserved from off the inside early, launched a three wide run to take on the leader as six furlongs was being reached, raced teamed with that foe from the three-eighths to the end, got put to a drive heading into the stretch, brushed with CADEYRN as they leaned upon each other in the general area of the three-sixteenths pole, couldn't go by. SEA RAVEN two wide entering the turn, was six to seven wide entering the turn, shied out several paths in midstretch reacting to the wayward antics of the runner up at the time, made no impact. MISTER MONOLO chased the pace from the two path and was through after going three-quarters. LOST IRON rode the rail, got placed five wide at the top of the lane to no avail.
