Footnotes

WOODERSON brushed the gate, shifted out leaving the chute, tracked the leader three deep, came under a ride midway through the turn, engage the leader entering the stretch, poked his head in front a furlong out and edged clear. EXPLORER was away in good order, set the pace toward the inside, was collared near the three-sixteenths pole, relinquished the lead with an eighth to run, was unable to go on with the winner but stayed on to preserve the runner up spot. UBER KIRK tucked in to save ground, took closer order through the turn, waited in traffic from the five-sixteenths to the quarter pole, shifted out to find room entering the lane, but flattened and settled for the minor award. FRANKNJYMME was close up four wide, but weakened entering the stretch and faded. TABIA settled off of the inside but lacked a response when called upon. DAHOG showed little.
